

Mitchell Community College

Health Sciences Building

FAST FACTS

Mitchell Community College Health Sciences Building

- 40,000 square foot facility
- $12 million cost
- Consolidates all health science programs (including EMT) into one hi-tech facility
- Allows Mitchell to increase capacity of nursing program seats (from 80 to 100)
- Provides capacity to grow new health sciences programs
- Increases clinical training opportunities

STATS

Did you know that...

Between 2000 to 2050

- N.C. is expected to see a 290 percent increase in population aged 75 to 84
- Iredell County is expected to see a 248 percent increase in the population aged 75 to 84
- Changing age demographics = changing disease demographics creating an increased demand for health care workers
- Allied health professions and related support careers are 20 of the top 30 fastest growing occupations